

Grand Quiz on Sunday 4th March 2007

At Highfied Hall. Highfield.

Starting at 7.00 for 7.30.

As most of you will know, the Hospital Action Group, along with others, have been desperately fighting closures and a possible shut down of our hospital at Hemel Hempstead. The Action Group are now in the process of Legally fighting these closures etc, and are in need of funds to save your hospital.

So, please come along, and if you can, organise a table , or even 2 (tables of 6 people) the cost is £5.00 per person including:

The Quiz, Tea / biscuits and nibbles at half time.

There will be 'teasers' and other things to test your memory, the questions are not difficult.

There will also be a, Big Bumper Raffle. We are looking for donations for this, so if you can help with a prize, thank you!

The bar will be open, so come along and enjoy your self, and help us to try to stop this terrible erosion to our almost new hospital.

Would you please let me know how many you can bring, and collect £5.00 from each person please. So we can then book table's for those people.

PLEASE MAKE CHEQUES PAYABLE TO:- Dacorum Hospital Action Group

Yours sincerely,

Hazel Blanshard and Geoff Lawrence
